

Our services in the field of production organization

Design of production and quality assurance processes

Selection of machines and measurement technology with IDENT

Value stream analysis

Our services

- Planning, design and optimization of production and material flows
- Portfolio of methods like lean, six sigma as well as own tools for the optimization of your production
- Systematic development of specification sheets for investment decisions on machines and measurement systems
- Support with market analysis and selection of measurement systems and production facilities
- On request: Engagement of further technology experts

Your benefit

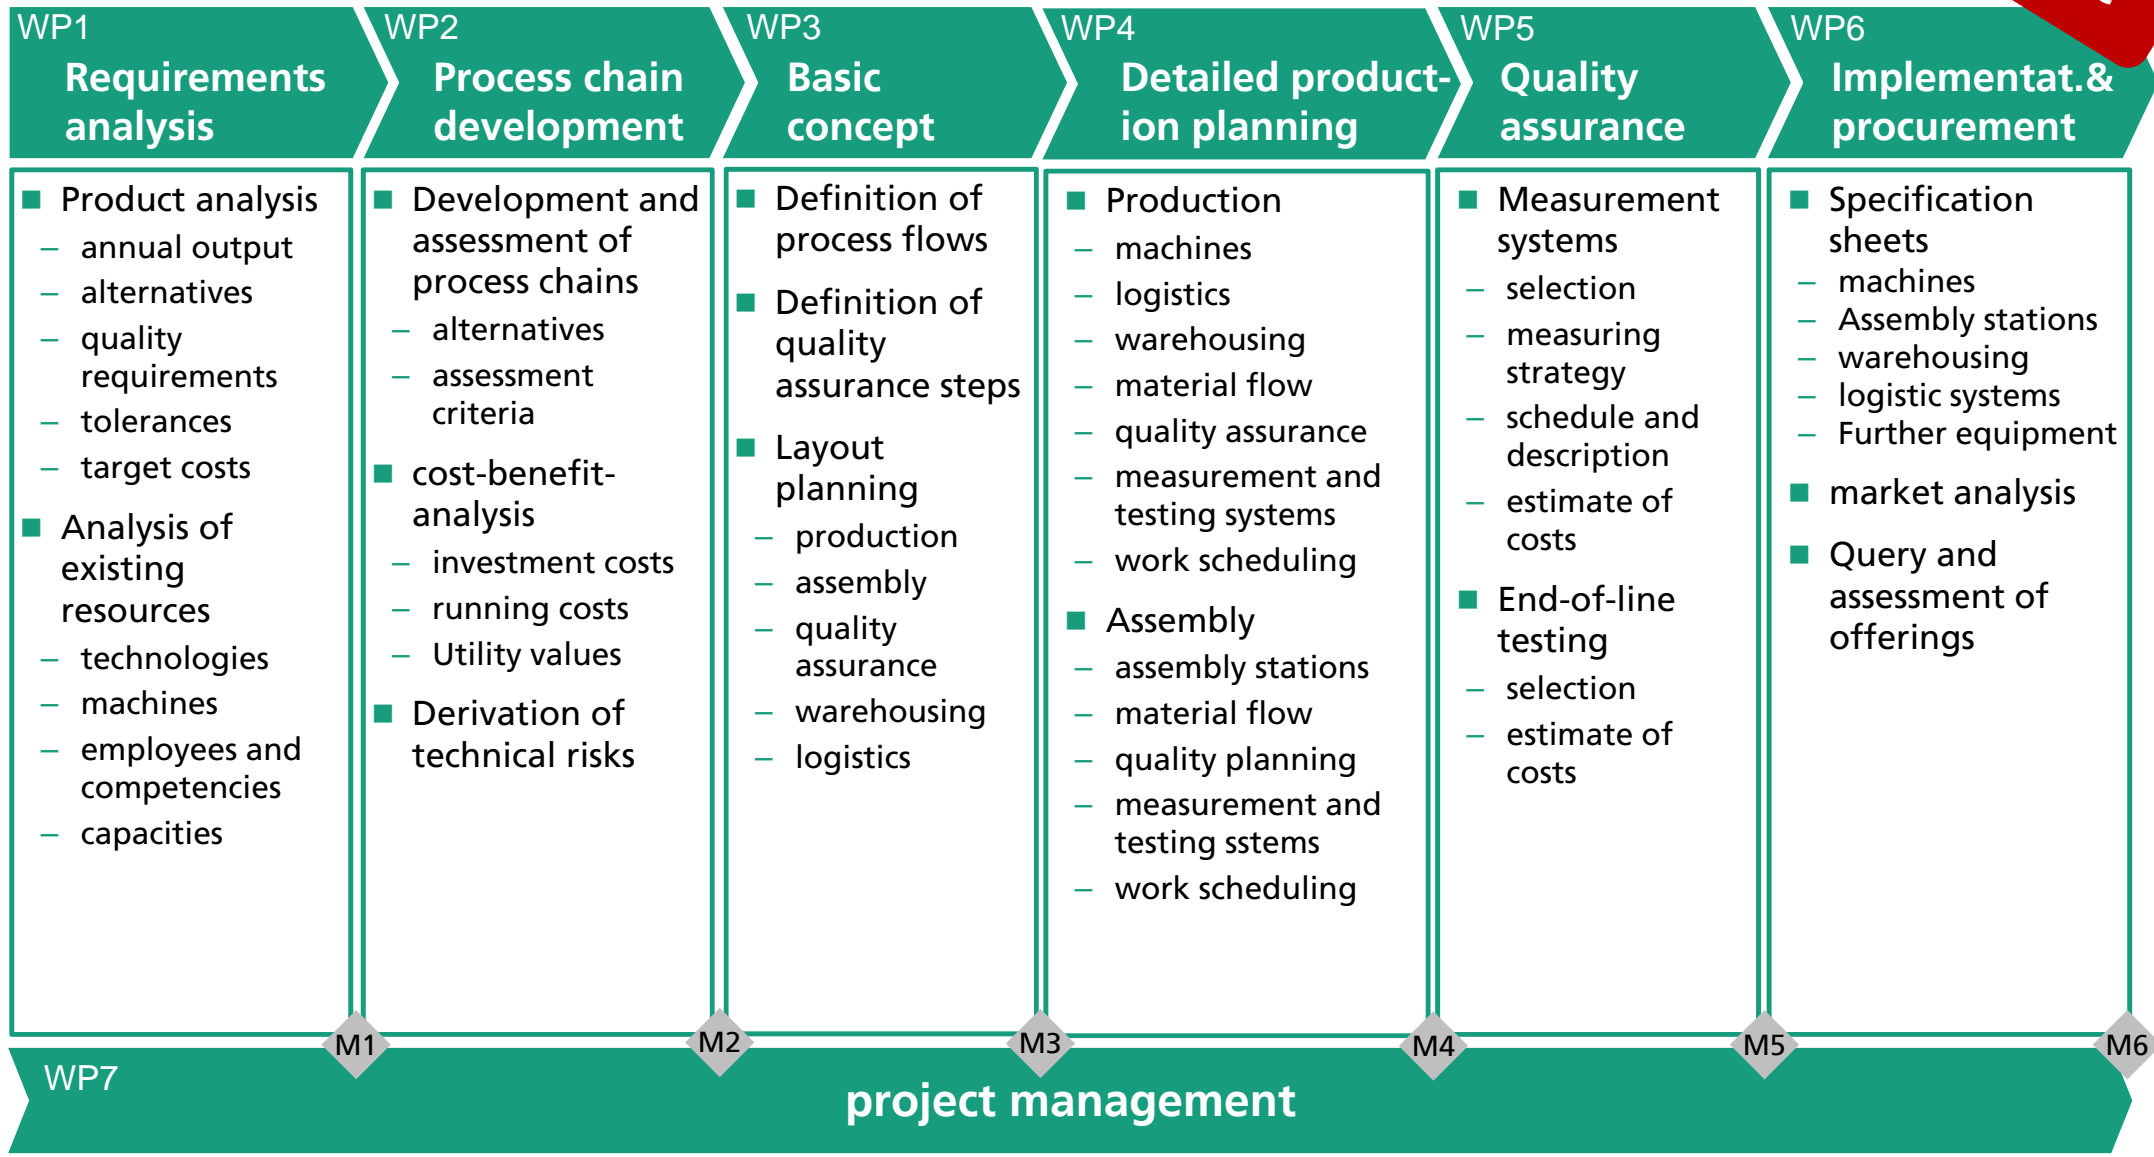

- High quality planning and design of your production
- Prevention of misinvestments concerning machines

We look forward to discuss your individual challenges!

Working schedule of a an exemplary project

Entire production and quality planning

sample

Schedule of an exemplary project

Entire production and quality planning

Sample

